Herring and A Superb View, All Around Shukutsu Course

Your guides on this course

A place that would have Hitchcock himself terrified. The blue sea turning white? Ghosts showing up at noon?...Shukutsu is an area known for strange phenomena like the sea turning white with gerring soft roe (Kuki) or the mirage called "Takashima Ghost".

"Otaru Annainin (guide)" Meister Mr. Morita

This course allows you to take a tourist boat around Otaru Port, Akaiwa, and the Otamoi Shore. In Shukutsu, overlooking the Ishikari Bay, you will still feel the people for whom the herring was their life. This is your chance to really understand the culture that herring engendered.

"Otaru Annainin (guide)" Meister Mr. Morishita

Shukutsu is a neighborhood where you can feel the atmosphere of herring fishing village prospered in the past. There're Ebisu shrine, Banya (hut to stay) and houses the fishermen used in the past. The beautiful sea and the cliff along with the shore are designated as quasi-national park. From Shukutsu Panorama Observatory, you can look around the great view including Otaru Nishin Goten (Herring-Mansion) and Hiyoriyama Lighthouse at the Cape Takashima. Please enjoy the history of herring fishing with the beautiful scenery and fresh seafoods.
